

APPLICATION FOR A CHARITABLE DONATION OR GRANT

Please read the information provided with this application form and complete it in full.

As part of our commitment to supporting the wider community across Devon and Cornwall the Devon & Cornwall Training Providers Network (DCTPN) is able to make small, single payments to individuals and / or organisations that are seeking financial support / assistance to support their education, training or skills needs.

Applications are welcomed from not-for-profit, charity or community interest groups and organisations, and from individuals, located within the counties of Devon and Cornwall to support education, skills, and training.

All other applications will not receive a reply.

Donations are capped at £200 per organisation / individual.

Applications are limited to one per annum per organisation or individual. However, in exceptional circumstances the Trustees may consider additional claims.

Successful applications will receive notification within one month of the DCTPN taking receipt of an application. Donations can only be paid into the named bank account of the organisation / individual applying for the grant / donation.

Applicants will need to supply relevant receipts / proof of purchase to the value of the grant made. Scanned copies are permitted but need to clearly show item purchased, date and cost.

If you would like to apply for a charitable donation from DCTPN please complete the form below and return via:

- E-mail: enquiries@trainingprovider.com
- Post: DCTPN, 14 Glenhurst Road, Plymouth PL3 5LT

A full list of successful applications can be obtained from the DCTPN on request by e-mailing enquiries@trainingprovider.com
