

Systemic Inclusion by Design: A Blueprint for Further Education

DCTPN in partnership with Jannice Jones MSc is proud to offer our latest master class ...

MASTER CLASS

Date: Tuesday 17 March, 2026 09:00am - 12:00 noon

Venue: Skills Group, Western Wood Way, Plympton, Plymouth PL7 5BG

Designed to equip training providers with the pedagogical tools necessary to teach those working across post-16 education, training and skills in how to move from reactive individual support to proactive systemic design.

Who should attend

Anyone working in the post-16 / FE space who is keen to learn more and gain the tools needed to effectively support neurodivergent learners.

Why attend?

With an increased focus on inclusion within Ofsted inspection and the rising numbers of learners presenting as neurodivergent this master class is an absolute must for any training provider.

Our Trainer

Jannice Jones MSc is a Neurodivergent Founder, Podcaster, Author, Positive Psychologist, Consultant, Coach, and Trainer within the neurodiversity field. She is also a mental health first aider and trained in coaching, counselling, CBT, Mindfulness, Neuroscience, NLP and is 'train the trainer' competent. Jannice delivers engaging and informative Neurodiversity and hidden disability training into organisations of all sizes. She has coached hundreds of divergent employees and entrepreneurs and has trained other neurodivergent women to become CPD qualified coaches in this space.

HOW TO BOOK

email: enquiries@trainingprovider.com

BOOKING OPEN UNTIL 10TH March.

PLACES ARE LIMITED TO ONE PER DCTPN MEMBER ORGANISATION IN THE FIRST INSTANCE, BUT ADDITIONAL PLACES CAN BE REQUESTED AND WILL BE CONSIDERED ONCE FINAL NUMBERS ARE IN.